

Before they stopped the harassment by phone, I got so many calls from unwanted callers that my wife and I would take the phone off the hook. Just because I have purchased something from someone, doesn't mean I want them calling and harassing me with their latest deal!

In just a few short hours I would receive so many calls about switching my long distance that I just wanted to scream. That is just one of countless others who just don't get it. They may be getting something out of this blanket party of calls, but it's at our cost.

Stop bothering us at home!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
